Advocate + Educator

Hi! I'm Mia O'Malley, and if you're here your story is probably much like my own.

Whether you are here because you are plus size and expecting a baby, or perhaps you are looking to embrace your plus size body, need size-friendly babywearing tips, looking to learn how to advocate for yourself with your care provider or maybe you are here because you like my style - whatever the reason might be - know that I am so happy you are here!

Let's be friends!
